Dear General Gehlen,

The day before he left, Heinz told me that you and Mrs. Gehlen may be visiting the United States early next fall. If you do, I would like very much to introduce you to part of the lake district of the Province of Ontario. I talked with Heinz about this plan and he endorses it.

The plan entails your flying to Ottawa, meeting Heinz there, paying a few calls and then driving up through the Algonquin Provincial Park to the Lake of Bays. You would be my guest at the lake, and then could drive on to Washington by way of Toronto, Hamilton, Niagara Falls, and a beautiful stretch of the Adirondacks which you cross coming through Pennsylvania. Heinz can tell you more about the plan since we have discussed it off and on for more than a year.

We would be particularly pleased to have you arrive before the end of August during our own vacation stay at the lake. If this is not possible, I can assure you that September is brilliant in Canada and that you might even be able to go swimming if you arrive before the middle of the month.

My wife joins me in kindest greetings to Mrs. Gehlen.

Sincerely,
